

MY SWEET SAVANNAH LIZE

WORDS --- BY
WALTER HILLIARD
MUSIC --- BY CHRIS. SMITH

NEW YORK
PUBLISHED BY Hamilton & Gordon, 139 FIFTH AVE.
Copyright 1904 by Hamilton & Gordon. English Copyright Secured

MY SWEET SAVANNAH LIZE.

Words by
WALTER HILLIARD.

Music by CHRIS SMITH.

Till voice.

In Sa-van-nah, Geor-gia, lives a dusk-y maid, I
In Sa-van-nah, Geor-gia, there is go-ing to be a calls her sweet Sa-van-nah Lize; — On this lit-tle South-ern gal ma fan-cy col-ored wed-ding soon, — And of all the brides to be there's heart is sure-ly laid, With-in ma heart I know I've got a prize; — none so fair as she, And I will be ma lit-tle Liz-a's groom; —

In a lit - tle cab - in 'mid the palm — leaf shades,
For ma wed - ding feast I've hired a rag - time band, To

That's the place this lit - tle Fay re - sides;
play up - on that hap - py aft - er - noon;

When the moon am shin - ing, And ma ban - jo I'm a chim - ing, I will
When the wed - dings o - ver, I'll be liv - ing in the clo - ver, And I'll rallentando.

sing to sweet Sa - van - nah Lize.
nev - er have to sing this tune.

CHORUS.

Slower.

Ma sweet Sa - van - nah Lize, — I've got a big sur-prise, —

— Something you don't sur-mise, — I wants to put you wise; — Come out and name the day — Oh, hon-ey don't de-lay — It must be soon I pray, —

1. Sa - van - nah Lize. — Ma sweet Sa - Lize. — 2.