If I ever get back to Cincinnati.

By CHRIS. SMITH
and
S.H. DUDLEY.

Moderato.

friend thro' his per - sua-sion got me work a-board a ship, Said vowed that time if I got home I'd nev - er leave no mo', 'Cause he to me "don't wor - ry you'll make mon - ey ev' - ry trip," Just trav - ling 'round from town to town's got me dis - gust - ed sho' Just like a fool I fol - lowed him, Tho' it was 'gainst my will, And as I was a - bout to sleep there came an aw - ful bump, For - when the ship com - menced to rock, from fright I took a chill, The got my job, thought 'bout my life, so off that train I jumped, I en - gine broke while out at sea, a thou - sand miles a - way, I land - ed hard up - on the ground, 'twas then I thought 'bout home, I heard some one say "go - ing down," so I be - gan to pray. — leaped of course and lost my job, — but saved my pre - cious bones. —

CHORUS.

If I ev - er get back — to Cin - cin - na - ti I p-f ain't a - gwine to leave no mo' Gwine to stay there for - ev - er, leave Cin - ci nev - - - er I used to think I did - n't like the place I kind-a thought the town was slow But if I ev - er get back to Cin - cin - na - ti, well I'll nev - er nev - er leave no mo'. If I mo'. D. S.
