

A black and white cartoon illustration of two boys singing enthusiastically into a large sheet of paper that they are holding open. The boy on the left has spiky hair and is wearing a dark shirt. The boy on the right has a pompadour hairstyle and is wearing a dark suit with a white shirt and a patterned tie. Both boys have their mouths wide open in a singing expression. The background consists of vertical red and white stripes. The entire scene is framed by a thick black border.

Music by Don M. Bestor

Two lit - tle sail - ors Mer - ry lit - tle sail - ors We love the o - ceans roar,
Four lit - tle sail - ors Mer - ry lit - tle sail - ors Al - ways up to tricks,
Six lit - tle sail - ors Mer - ry lit - tle sail - ors Ev - 'ry one a mate,

The first vocal line is in 2/4 time with a key signature of one sharp. It consists of four measures of music, each corresponding to a line of lyrics. The melody is simple and catchy, using eighth and sixteenth notes.

Two more sail - ors com - ing a - long and you see that there are four.
Two more sail - ors com - ing a - long and you see that there are six.
Two more sail - ors com - ing a - long and you see that there are eight.

The second vocal line continues the melody from the first line. It consists of four measures of music, each corresponding to a line of lyrics. The melody is simple and catchy, using eighth and sixteenth notes.

Eight lit - tle sail - ors Mer - ry lit - tle sail - ors, Brave and fear - less men,

The third vocal line continues the melody from the second line. It consists of four measures of music, each corresponding to a line of lyrics. The melody is simple and catchy, using eighth and sixteenth notes.

Two more sail-ors com-ing a-long and you see that there are ten

Ten lit-tle sail-ors all in a row In their cute lit-tle suits of blue

Sail on the bound-ing main to-geth-er all of the good ships crew
