In Ten-nes-see

lives a charm-ing maid-en, She's all this world to me, And tru-est wed-ding bells are chim-ing, My heart no more will pine; For she is blue is she; With love my heart is o - ver - mine, all mine, With hap - pi - ness two hearts are

- la - - den, For she has prom-ised me, That rhym - ing And still we bill and coo As soon my bride she'll be; When the oft we used to do; And moon is shin - ing high, 'Tis then you'll hear me cry:— through the whole day long, To her I sing this song.—

CHORUS.

Ten-nes-see, Ten-nes-see Tess - ie, My love for you, you can guess - ie;

p-f

My heart is ach - ing, Don't keep me wait - ing,

Sweet-ly the birds are sing - ing, Soon wed-ding bells will be ring - ing;

Hap-py we'll be, just you and me Ten-nes-see, Ten-nes-see Tess. Tess.
