MAZIE,

My Georgia Lady From The Sunny South.

Words by
MISS BERTHA GLEESON.

Music by FRED. F. HOULIHAN.

Allegro moderato.

Way down in Geor-gia where the cot-ton blos-soms bloom, That is Now when the Springtime comes on some bright sun-ny day, I will till ready.

The first line of the song features a vocal melody in the treble clef and piano accompaniment in the bass clef. The piano part includes dynamic markings 'f' (forte) and 'p' (piano). The lyrics are: 'Way down in Geor-gia where the cot-ton blos-soms bloom, That is Now when the Springtime comes on some bright sun-ny day, I will till ready.'

where my lit-tle la-dy love does dwell, I'm goin' to take a trip to take this dus-ky la-dy by my side, And to the par-son I'll go,

The second line of the song continues the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The piano part includes dynamic markings 'f' (forte) and 'p' (piano). The lyrics are: 'where my lit-tle la-dy love does dwell, I'm goin' to take a trip to take this dus-ky la-dy by my side, And to the par-son I'll go,'
