

BIG CHIEF DYNAMITE

FEATURED BY HARRY KOLER
IN GIRLS FROM HAPPYLAND CO.

WILL ROSSITER
THE CHICAGO PUBLISHER
152 LAKE ST. CHICAGO, ILL.

Words by
JEFF T. BRANEN
Music by
AL PIANTADOSI Sung by
MY MARIUCCIA

Big Chief Dynamite.

Words by
JEFF T. BRANEN.
Writer of "Somebody Lied"

Music by
AL. PIANTADOSI.
Writer of "My Maruccia" (Take a Steamboat.)

Lively.

Cohen got tired from the sim - ple life, And turned his pawn-shop o - ver to his Tough Guy Le - vi heard a - bout the threat Said he I'll make it hot for Cohen you wife Says he "I'll go and show your cow - boy Jew, bet And right a - way he sent for bro - ther Syl - vest To Right a - way a thing or two, I'll go out west and join an drive back Coh-en from the west, "Come on" said Coh'n you and your

In - dian band, We'll wipe those cow boys from the prai - rie land With broth - er too, You'll look like thir - ty cents when I get through Syl - grip sack full of bomb shells, I'll start a reg' lar - fight, For the vest and Le - vi start - ed, To fight with all their might, "It's a

In - dians call me "Big Chief Dy - na - mite." (Spoken) oo-whoopska, oo-whoopska shame," said Coh'n, then threw the dy - na - mite.

CHORUS.

Big Chief Dy-na-mite, oi, oi, I'm a tough Jew In-dian boy, Who's a-fraid from the west-ern life, What I care for the cow-boy's knife? Tough Guy Le-vi and his bunch, I will eat them for my lunch Come on, cow-boys I don't care a Whoop for all that's on the prai-rie

Dy-na-mite's a tough guy too, you see. see.