

THE LATEST AND GREATEST PATRIOTIC SONG

BILLY BOY

WORDS
by

LESTER A. WALTON

MUSIC
by

C. LUCKY ROBERTS

WALTON PUB. CO.
JOS. W. STERN & CO.
102-104 WEST 38TH ST., N. Y.
SOLE SELLING AGENTS

BILLY BOY.

Words by LESTER A. WALTON.

Music by
C. LUCKY ROBERTS.

Marcia.

Piano.

Tom-my At - kins is a war - ri - or bold — Mer - rie
There is Rus - sia with a might - y host, — Of her

Eng - land loves him more than gold — And to France the he - ro of to - day stur - dy cos - sacks she can boast — And for val - or no one can for - get is fight - ing in the trench - es miles a - way — Now Bil - ly those fear - less Bel - gian lads who're fight - ing yet — Now Bil - ly

Boy, has gone a - cross the sea to help them in their fight for Lib - er - ty.
Boy, its put right up to you to help them win so show what you can do.

Copyright MCMXVII by Walton Pub. Co. 247 W. 46th St., New York.

All Rights Reserved.

International Copyright Secured.

The Publisher reserves the right to the use of this Copyrighted work upon the parts of Instruments serving to reproduce it Mechanically.

Chorus.

Bil - ly Boy, Bil - ly Boy you're a sol-dier of re - nown Bil - ly Boy, Bil - ly Boy in a un - i - form of brown What a grand old sight As you bat - tle for the right Bil - ly Boy, Bil - ly Boy with a heart so fond and true for the Red, White and Blue, you are loy-al thro' and thro' you put the "Brave" in Brave - ry you are my pride and joy Now let the bu - gle blow, come on come on let's go "At - ta boy" my Bil - ly Boy. Bil - ly Boy.

The piano accompaniment features a steady eighth-note bass line in the left hand and chords in the right hand. The melody is primarily in the vocal line, with some instrumental flourishes in the piano part. The score includes repeat signs and first/second endings at the end.