

I'M JUST A LONESOME BOY AND I'M LOOKING FOR A LONESOME GIRL

BY MAY GREENE
AND
BILLY LANG

LANG AND MENDELSON INC.
181 TREMONT ST.,
BOSTON, MASS.

STARHER
N.Y.

I'm Just a lonesome Boy, and I'm looking for a lonesome Girl

Words and music by
MAY GREENE and BILLY LANG

INTRO

Moderato

VAMP

VOICE

You're a dear lit-tle girl and I find,
Tell me dear your ad-dress and your name

You're the kind that I've had in my mind. For I'm in
If you don't, I'll get you just the same If you should need of con-so-la-tion— Won't you ac-cept my in-vi-ta-tion To a go now I would miss you— And I've not had a chance to kiss you I am

walk, and a talk, dear with me
strong to do my lit-tle bit

For I'm sure, in our views, we'll a-gree
And you look good to me I'll ad-mit

You've a
I en-

style and a smile that I find worth the while Won't you take a chance with me?
treat once a-gain Don't let me ask in vain I've a rea-son I'll ex-plain.

Copyright 1918 by Lang and Mendelsohn Inc.
181 Tremont St., Boston, Mass.
International Copyright Secured

(Mechanical and all other rights reserved.)

CHORUS

I'm just a lone-some boy dear Looking for a lone-some girl,

I'm full of young am - bi - tion I was born that way and That's my lov-ing dis-pos-i - tion

Of all the girls I've met dear You're the one best bet with me

Folks have told me ev - er since I was a bab - y That someday I'd get e-nough of lov-ing may-be
If you let me put my arms a - round you hon - ey You can have my watch and chain and all my mon-ey

I'm just a lone-some boy dear And I'm look-ing for a lone-some girl. girl. —