

Maid of the Orient

WORDS BY BESSIE NICHOLSON MUSIC BY J.B. MULLEN

HARRY VON TILZER
MUSIC PUBLISHING CO.
42 West 28th Street,
NEW YORK, CITY.

MAID OF THE ORIENT.

Poem by BESSIE NICHOLSON.

Music by J. B. MULLEN.

Composer of
"Mandy," "Oft times"
"A New Year's Dream" Waltzes, etc.

INTRO.

Marcia.

Moderato.

A gar-den lake, a ti - ny boat
The mer - ry sounds of rev - el ceased

'Neath far off East - ern
The gar-den lights were skies few

A mys-tic flood of o - pal
Ah! witch-ing maid that sum-mer

light night Ere we had

Copyright assigned to Harry Von Tilzer, Music Publ. Co. 42 W. 28th St. N.Y.

Copyright MCM I by Mullen & Cain.

English Copyright Secured.

Chicago Office

"A New Year's Dream" Waltzes by Mullen are played every where Price 60cts.

67 Clark St. Oneonta Bldg.

Par - a - dise
said a - dieu

And as those mag - ic strains of love you
For 'mid the lo - tus flow - ers dream - y

wak - en'd,
per - fume,

You touch'd my heart strings
As swift the mo - ments

too, Oh! lit - tle flew, You lis - ten'd

Marcia.

CHORUS.

maid With dusk - y eyes I won - der if you knew.
while I told the Old Old Sto - ry ev - er new.

I

rall.

know she's watching from the ram - parts, I know she's waiting on the quay;

p

A - gain I hear her part - ing words, Dear love come back to me. Our ship is sail-ing o'er the o - cean far from lov-er's E - den sent, This last em - brace our pledge shall be, Sweet maid of the O - ri - ent. ent. D.S.