Down in sun - ny Ten - nes - see, Just as held him on her knee, Lit - tle sleep - y coon; With his lone - some as can be, Mam - my sits a lone; And her lit - tle kink - y head, Heav - y as 'a chunk of lead, While to him she'd heart no more is glad, But the world is drear and sad, For her ba - by's croon; And as mam - my rocked him you could hear her say, gone; Mam-my now is dream-ing as her eye - lids close,

"Him will be a great big man some day, Go to sleep, yoah mam-my's While on ev - 'ry sum-mer breeze that blows, Comes the sweet re-frain she rall sug - ah plum," Then to him this plain - tive tune she'd hum. used to hum, "Go to sleep, yoah mam - my's sug - ah plum?"

Mam-my's kink-y head, Ought to be in bed, Lis-ten to de whip-poohwill; Heah de mooch-cow moan, Heah de bull-frog groan, Boo-gie man he suah will come; Bet-tah go to sleep, ma hon-ey chile, 'Cause you'se mam-my's l'il sug-ah plum. plum.
