I WANT YOU MORNING, NOON AND NIGHT

Lyric by
WILL D. COBB

Fox Trot Song

Music by
GUS EDWARDS

Moderately (Not too fast)

When do you want me most, sweetheart of mine! When do your Ab-sence, they say, makes the heart fond-er grow, But you can't thoughts, dear, turn to me? When e'er it is then our thoughts must en-prove it, dear, by me; For when you're near, my heart's fond-er, I twine For I think of you con - stant - ly know Where you are there I want to be

In the gold - en dawn, dear, When the day has gone, dear —
When I first a - wake, dear, With each breath I take, dear —

REFRAIN

Morn - - - ing, Noon and Night, I want your arms

p-f

a - round me tight. I'm so a - fraid some one will steal you some day — Don't blame me for feel - ing that way — When you're out of my sight I lose my sleep

my ap-pe-tite Do you won-der my heart's on fire with one de-sire Morn-ing, Noon and Night, I want you,

Morn-ing, Noon and Night. Night.
