Moderato (Not fast.)

VAMP

The fun-ny pa-pers gave a ball last night,
Old "Bar-on Bean" was seen 'bout half past one.

And I declare it was a fun-ny sight;
He came on time, the fun had just be-gun;

Old "Doc-tor Yak" sent in-vi-ta-tions
I'll bet that he was in his glo-ry

To "Hap-py Hoo-li-gan" and all re-la-tions.
When he was asked to tell a fun-ny sto-ry.

He said, "The fun be-gins at half past eight,
Old "Pe-ty Dink" was buy-ing black ei-gars

I'll call for all in old "Three-for-ty-eight,"
While talking to "that son-in-law of Pa's,"

So e-ven "Bus-ter Brown" he thought he'd bust around,
Un-till the lights were dim they kept a-drop-ping in,

Gee! but it was great, I'll state. For
One and all swayed 'round the hall. For

"Pol-ly and her Pals" were swaying right and left,
Both the "Newly Weds" they came to see the show,
"Pa" was playing checkers there with "Mutt and Jeff,"
Showing "Married Life" to "Ros-ie" and her beau?

"Ma-mie's An-gel Child" was pout-ing soon as she heard "An-dy" shout-ing "Oh! Min!" Then Mis-ter
Mis-ter "Hap-py Hoo-li-gan" he had to act the fool a-gain with "Oh! Min!" Just then Bud

"Kra-zy Kat" and "Iz-zy Mouse" be-gan to mix,
Fisher called around for Mis-ter "Mutt and Jeff,"
"Hans and Fritz" they ordered up a load of bricks;
Short-ly af-ter that most all the par-ty left;

"Ahe Ka-bib-ble" act-ed mad and got real rough 'Cause the band refused to play the "Maz-zel-tov!" 'Twas so en-
