

"Canny Sandy"

"A WEE BIT O' SCOTCH"

from the

MUSICAL FARCE

"THE JAIL BIRDS"

— By —

R. Barclay Brown

...→ Presented by the ←...

CABLE CLUB COMEDIANS

Lenox

30 Huntington Ave.

MUSIC CO.

BOSTON, MASS.

Canny Sandy

R. BARCLAY BROWN

Allegretto

Moderato

I'm aw-fu'tired, I'm la-zzy and I'm wea-ry, I like tae sit and smoke and think you see, — I
One time I went to London on a vis-it, I saw the wondrous sights and say'twas grand, — I used to love a lass, she was a dear-ie, I loved her ver-y much and she loved me. — She saw the famous horse guards and the tow-er But the wom-en folks I cood-na un-dér-stand. — One said if I wad buy a nice wee cot-tage, Wi' ros-es round the door then we could wed. — But a night I took a las-sie out to sup-per, She or-dered quail on toast and mar-ma-lade. — I Copyright, MCMXXV, by The Lenox Music Co.

International Copyright Secured

30 Huntington Ave. Boston, Mass.

cot-tage means an aw-fu' lot o' mon-ey, So' I bought ma-sel' a meerschaum pipe in - stead.
saw the bill of fare and sweetly an-swered, You will take a bowl 'o soup, and cheese in - stead.

CHORUS

Oh I like tae sit and smoke and watch the world go by I might have made a for-tune if I'd on-ly cared to try. I'm hap-py and con-tent-ed; what more could I desire Than my pipe and plen-ty 'bac-co and a chair be-side the fire Oh I fire