Fifty Times A Day.

Words and Music by Chas. K. Harris.

Grazioso.

Till Ready.

I'm dream-ing of you lit-tle maid-en
You said you'd be my lit-tle bride, you fif - ty times a-day, With love for you my heart is lad - en, prom-ised in the spring, You sure - ly must re - mem - ber dar - ling, fif - ty times a day, When the morn - ing sun shines bright - ly, when I bought the ring, Then there came the cold De - cem - ber,

When the stars are gleam - ing night - ly, Then my heart goes out to you, just Ah to well do I re - mem - ber, When the birds no long - er cared, to you, My girl - ie Once there was a lit - tle girl who had a lit - tle beau, sing, My girl - ie When they told you sweetheart that an - oth - er you must wed,

Kissed and loved each oth - er though 'twas man - y years a - go,
Then you nest - led near me and I kissed your curl - y head,

Time has flown since last I met you but I nev - er can for - get you, Though I left you brok-en heart-ed said a fond fare-well and part - ed,

Fif - ty time a day I think of you just you.
 Fif - ty time a day I think of you just you.

Chorus.

I'm think - ing think - ing of you lit - tle sweet-heart,

Fif - ty times a day, And I'm gaz - - ing at your
