

GOOD BYE WILD WOMEN

GOOD BYE!

You can't go wrong with any 'Feist'
Song

Words by Howard Johnson
and
Milton Ager
Music by
Geo. W. Meyer

POPULAR EDITION
LEO. FEIST INC. NEW YORK
HERMAN DAREWSKI MUSIC PUBLISHING CO. LONDON, ENG.

² Words by
HOWARD JOHNSON
and MILTON AGER

Good-bye, Wild Women, Good-bye!

Music by
GEO. W. MEYER

Moderato

Oh, what a ter - ri - ble blow, —
Now it's wine, wom - an and song —

Congress said li - quor must go, — It's not the drink - ing
But soon you'll find — it's all wrong, — When they cut wine — out that's got me think - ing, — That's not what wor - ries me so. — you'll quick - ly find — out, — Wom - en will fol - low a - long. —

I don't mind los - ing my pals, — But tunk of the beau - ti - ful gals. —
Oh, what a ter - ri - ble shame, — The wild women all — will grow tame. —

CHORUS

After the coun-try goes dry, ——— Good - bye, wild womengood bye!

How on earth do you expect to win 'em? Un-less you get a lit-tle bit of good li-our in 'em, The girlies will start to act shy, ——— Right after the first of Ju - ly;

Then ev-'ry night you'll see man-y a sin - ner, Tak-ing his own lit - tle wif - ie to din - ner, The
They may be chic, but just cut out their li - quor, Then it's a cinch they can nev - er get "shick - er," The minutethe coun-try goes dry, ——— Good - bye, wild womengood bye! ——— bye! ———