(He) Just im-ag - ine I'm a judge, a
(She) Now that I have heard the sen - tence man so won - drous wise, You're be - fore me on a charge, so why I think I ought To o - bey, or else you'll hold me do not be sur - prised, If I say the charge is noth - ing for con - tempt of court, So I think you'd bet - ter 'phone to less than lar - ce - ny, You are guilt - y, 'cause you stole my dear old Par - son Brown, And I know a sale of wed - ding heart a-way from me. For this grave of-fence, I think you should be pun-ished good, rings a-way down-town, If a five room flat for rent - al you should chance to see,

And I'll treat you just the same as a - ny wise judgewould,
 Stock it full of dish - es, leave the cook - ing all to me,

There is no chance for re-pent-ance, I am going to read my sen-tence,
 And when we are safe - ly mar - ried, You will wish that you had tar - ried,

The musical score is written for voice and piano. It features a single melodic line for the voice and a piano accompaniment consisting of a right-hand melody and a left-hand bass line. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is 4/4. The score is divided into six systems, each containing a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the vocal line. The piano accompaniment includes various musical notations such as chords, arpeggios, and melodic lines.

Do just as I say for I'm the judge.....
I'm your pris - 'nor, tell me what to do.....

CHORUS

I sen-tence you to come with me and be my wife, I sen - tence you to do my cook - ing all your life, I sen-tence you to al - ways be at my side, Your fines will be car - ess - es, when you're my bride. You stole my heart and now I'm going to steal some kiss - es, You are sen - tenced dear, to learn from me, what bliss is, You must call me "Hon - ey," spend my mon - ey,

And my sen - tence takes ef - fect to - day. I sen - tence day.....
