

PINING JUST FOR YOU

BY WILLIAM BERNARD

HAROLD FREEMAN COMPANY
MUSIC PUBLISHERS
PROVIDENCE, RHODE ISLAND.

Effeller

Pining Just For You.

By WILLIAM BERNARD.

Tempo di Schottische.

Piano. ff Vamp. p

In old New Eng-land lives a girl so young and fair,
I've pined for you since last we met that moon-light night,
Hair of au-burn hue and so di-vine.
Think-ing of your smiles and blush-es red.

mf

Pleas-ing, teas-ing, ways, with eyes that laugh and stare, She is sub-lime. My Wish-ing you were mine, to have, to hold, to love, My heart has bled. In head is in a whirl when e'er I meet this girl, Hard-ly know just how to say. To dreams you're al-ways with me and I won-der why, Cour-age fails me when I try. To f

Dear - ie you must know I mad - ly love you, I've come to tell - you just the way.
ask you for your hand and say "I love you;" Per - haps I'll tell - you by and by.

Chorus.

I'm pin - ing for - you ev - 'ry night and day, I long to claim - you for my own. — And while the moon a - bove is shin - ing, I'd like to be with you and you a - lone. — My ach - ing heart - is mak - ing me so blue, Won - d'ring why you can - not love me too. When I love you Tru - ly, and Pin - ing just for you. you.