In a neat ca-fé just a-cross the way
 In this neat ca-fe just a-cross the way there's a pret-ty girl I know _____ And she is fond of me That ev-'ry day I go to dine _____ To see this lit-tle girl This

I can plain-ly see So now I'm her stead-y beau _____ prec-ious lit-tle pearl For she is my bright sun-shine _____

If next Sun - day's fine We'll go down the line, take a Soon the day will come When we both are one, and when trol - ley to the gay sea - shore _____ And she be - comes my hap - py bride _____ We'll go hap - py we will be there to - geth - er by the sea for on our hon - ey - moon to the place we used to spoon where we she's the on - ly one that I a - dore. _____

 sat to chat be - side the roll - ing tide. _____

CHORUS

When we're strolling by the ocean side where the wild waves roll.

As the moon is peeping from the sky Then her hands I'll hold.

Once a-gain life's sto-ry old is told to the girl I know When she's so fond of me then I know we'll both a-gree as thro' life we go.
