You ask me if— my love is true, You ask me if— it's The sea-sons change in ev-'ry year, But not my love for all for you. An - y - one— can sure - ly see, Just what you mean to you my dear, Won't you say— you love me too, And make my dreams come me. — My love for you will nev-er die, I've got a good rea-son why.— true. — You're like a rain - bow in the sky, You make life bright-er that's why.—

CHORUS (not fast)

I've got twen-ty-four hours of love for you dear, Twen-ty-four hours each day in the year, I don't think I'd ev-er feel blue, If you had the same a-mount of love for me, too— From ear-ly each morn-ing till late ev-'ry night, It's you I'm think-ing of— Ev-'ry day that I live,— I'll be will-ing to give, Twen-ty-four hours of love. I've got love.
