When the cru-el war came o'er us I was in the Zieg-field cho-rus With a I don't mind if days are meat-less But the sub-way's al-ways seat-less And on

Vamp

"John" for ev'-ry eve-ning in the week _____ Ev'-ry night some lit-tle Chap-pie Did his John-less nights we all go home that way _____ Wine-less meals of cheese and crack-ers With a best to make me hap-py I was in the sev-enth hea-ven so to speak _____ But then the coun-try lot of spine-less slack-ers are-nt just the things to make a girl-ie gay _____ But when the cru-el called her boys to war _____ And all my "Johns" were true blue to the core _____ war is o'er you'll see _____ My gen-er-als come march-ing home to me _____
