Moderato
(Not too slow)

Til - lie Jones met John-nie Walk - er Til - lie told him that she owned six

Vamp (Tinkle of cow bell) on one sum-mer's day; ——— John-nie thought he was some talk - er, great big mo - tor cars, ——— She owned the New York Eve-ning Sun and pret - ty lit - tle Til - lie did - n't think that way. When he start - ed sev'-ral gilt-edged mort-ga - ges on dear old Mars. She e - ven told him in to tell his same old line of bluff, — Said Til-lie, "Please don't she con-trolled the whirl of Sat-urn's rings, — Her big steam yachts could think I'm sil-ly, I've heard quite e-nough." — Said he, "My dear, it's go ten knots, and lots of oth-er things. — A long, long time he ver-y clear my line of bull is fine." — Said she, "That's on-ly lis-tened, then quite out of pa-tience he — Said, "Moo, moo, moo, now your i-de-a, now I want to tell you mine." — that for you, my dear, the same you gave to me."

CHORUS

Tin - kle, tin - kle, tin - kle, pret - ty lit - tle cow - bell, —

p-f

Tin - kle, tin - kle in the dell, —

Tin - kle for the lies this fel - low's tell - ing,

Tin - kle for the win - kle of a good old man named Rip Van Win - kle.

Tin - kle, tin - kle, tin - kle, that is aw - ful stuff you sprin - kle, And I want to tell you now _____ That it's

"bull" when you get a - way with it, _____ But when you don't (good-night), that's "cow?" _____ "cow?" _____
