

SWAY

BY TOM POWELL

PUBLISHED BY TOM POWELL-LEASON PUB. CO.
SPRINGFIELD, OHIO
SUN THEATRE BLDG.

S W A Y.

Words and Music by TOM POWELL.

Allegro moderato.

1. You of - ten hear
2. When you are sad

Copyright 1913 by Tom Powell Music Co., Inc., Springfield, Ohio.
Mechanical rights reserved.

Thosesame folks will start to sway ev'-ry time they hear it, When-That's the time you wish you had some-thing'round to cheer you, Some ev - er they are near it; Faust is all right once a year But rag - time mus - ic near you; Some folks cry and rant and rave 'Bout rag - time's what we want to hear, So come on hon - ey, rag - time dig - ging its own grave, When they say that just come on dear, let's sway this way.

say be - have let's sway this way.

Sway.

CHORUS.

Dont sit there like you dont care, but sway, sway, You

p-f

know darned well this tunes a bear. . . so sway, sway,

Fun - ny how some people try to make be-lieve, Grand op-era is the on-ly mus-ic,

Lis - ten Steve, down in your heart when you say that You know you're wrong, a

Sway.

rag-time song will make an-y - bod - y with a mus-i-cal in - stinct sway, sway, It cap-tures both the wise guy and the jay, hey!

Come on ev-ry-bod-y start to sing-ing, when you get real happy start to swing-ing, Then.

stand right up and let your bod - ies sway this way. way.

Sway.