

JAZZIN' DOWN IN HINDOO LAND

Lyric By
R. C. Young
Music By
R. J. Haskins

E. J. R. 1934

PUBLISHED BY R. C. YOUNG MUSIC CO. COLUMBUS, OHIO.

Jazzin Down In Hindoo Land

Lyric by
R. C. YOUNG

Music by
REUBEN J. HASKIN

Moderato

ff boisterous like

Where the dreamy riv-ers flow On their jour - ney to the sea
Trav - el-ers from dis-tant lands Rid-ing at the close of day

And the eve-ning breez-es blow In a land of mys - ter - y
Stop to rest their car - a - vans When they hear that Jazz Band play

When the evening sun has set They'll all be dancing there you bet See each Stop to rest their car-a-van But soon you'll find them on the sand By the marcato

Hin - doo lad and Hin-doo maid, Jazz-in' there be-neath tall palm trees shade.
charms of dus-ky Hindoos swayed And the mel - o-dies that Jazz Band played.

Copyright MCMXIX by R. C. Young Music Co., Columbus, O.

Copyright Canada MCMXIX.

International Copyright Secured.

The Publisher reserves the right to the use of this copyrighted work upon the parts of instruments serving to reproduce it mechanically.

Be Sure To Get This Song For Your Talking Machine And Player Piano.

CHORUS
Moderato

3

How those Or-i - en-tals bend and sway, 'Neath the big red

p dolce

moon While you hear those tom toms play

p pp cresc. molto

A won-der - ful jazz tune They'll be dan-cing till the ff fff mf

break of day On the sil-v'ry sand Ev' - ry - bod-y's hap-py

f mp p mf f

as can be Jazz - in' down in Hin-doo land. land.

f cresc.