CHORUS

(mournfully)

You go your way, And I'll go mine; And please don't think that I'm a-going to waste a-way and pine. I'm going to want you,

I know — that's true; Be-lieve me, Hon - ey, You're going to want me too. That soothing love you've got — is just the kind — That sat-is-fied the longing of this heart of mine; I know I'll miss that burn-ing kiss, For it traveled to my head like wine My heart will ache, (I'll sac-ri-fice, My heart might break, I'll pay the price)

Yet still I say You go your way and I'll go And so I say
