

I'M GOING TO BE NEUTRAL

(and love them all)

Words and Music by Weston
Wilson

Published by WESTON WILSON
LOS ANGELES, CALIF.

Charles N. Daniels
MUSIC PUBLISHER
SAN FRANCISCO
SELLING AGENT

W. R.
NEADOL

I'm Going to Be Neutral

(And Love Them All)

Lyric and Music by WESTON WILSON

Moderato

p mp f

I've trav-eled all a-round,

And now I'm home-ward bound, Met lots of pret-ty girls, In ev-'ry coun-try

A diff-'rent type I found. I wined them and I dined them, And I rit.

gave each one a toast, But now I could-nt tell Which one I loved the most!

rit.

CHORUS

Pret - ty lit - tle frau - lein O - ver in Ger - ma - ny, I love
 Pret - ty lit - tle Hu - la girl O - ver in Wai - ki - ki, I love you!

 you!

Mad' - moi - selle Ma - rie in gay Pa - ree, I love Maid - en of the fan in old Ja - pan, I love you tool!

 tool!

Could an - y - thing be sweet - er Than my Span - ish sen - or - i - ta, Oh fair I - tal - ian daugh - ters Float - ing on Ve - ne - tian wa - ters; -

Or a Brit - ish maid that I re - call? But if one of them I choose, Why the Chi - na girl, I hear you soft - ly call. Gee! I don't know where to turn, For each rest of them I lose; I'm goin' to be neu - tral and love them all. all.

 one of them I yearn; I'll have to be neu - tral and love them all. all.