Moderato

I hear that whis-tle blow and it sounds so good to me,
I thought I'd see the world so I start-ed out to roam,

I mean the one they blow on the train for Ten-nes-see;
But all night long I dream of a place called "Home sweet Home,"

And if you care to take a trip where your heart will be at rest—
For an-y shack is par-a-dise in the old hometown to me;

You'll be hap-py, dog-gone hap-py in the land I love the best.—
Days of clo-ver lived all o-ver back in dear old Ten-nes see.—

CHORUS

Won't you come a - long with me to my home in Ten - nes -

p-f

see, — You'll see my dad and mam - my wait ing there to wel - come you; Where the blue of south - ern skies — and the breez - es seem to har - mon -

ize. — An - y time you want a peach to sit up - on your knee, all you have to do is go right out and shake the tree, You'll be glad you came with me — when I go back home to Ten - nes - see. Won't you see. —
