Dear old Look-out Mountain, look for me From your moun-tain height a Ev-'ry-where I've been I've heard them boast Of the trea-sures that they bove,

own,

While you're watch-ing o-ver Ten-nes-see Won't you look out for the girl I Clear from Maine to that Pa-ci-fic coast All their won-drous beau-ties I've been love,

shown,

Tho' I left you both to roam a-round
Ev-'ry state has trea-sures, I'll ad-mit,

All my roam-ing days are But I know a thing that's thru, You won't doubt When you find out I've been true to both of you:

true, They'd own up they were shown up If they looked at both of you:—

Chorus
