- This sun - ny land that made me long and made me
 - But still my heart was with this sweet land of my yearn, — Just to re - turn. There is a warm spot birth, — The best on earth. So now to-night twixt in my heart, — I hope my friends we ne'er will part — My lit - tle joy and tears, — Let us for - get the by-gone years — You can't im - hun - gry eyes were stare - ing just to see, — The sun - ny ag - ine friends what this all means to me, — My hap - py land that means so ver - y much to me, I'm glad to be!

heart is filled with joy and ec - sta - sy, I'm glad to be!

Refrain.

Here in sun - ny Ri - vi - e - ra Sun - ny Ri - vi - e - ra

Bay, There's a dream-y dream-y feel - ing seems to haunt you night and day, Ev - 'ry moth-er's son will meet you, with a smile they al-ways greet you — and near - ly ev - ry - where — There's love right in the air, — There's not a place, which can com - pare; Oh those ef - fer - ves - cent breez - es make the trees all bend and sway, — Blow-ing fra-grance from the flow - ers, And to us they seem to say,

"You're down in na-ture's land, There's nothing near so grand, accept a wel-come hand, - Oh can't you un-der - stand, - You're down in rit.
