SAVE ALL YOUR LOVIN' TILL I COME BACK HOME AND

Grin, Grin, Grin.

Words and Music by HAROLD DIXON

INTRODUCTION

Marcia

VAMP

The piano introduction consists of two parts. The first part, labeled 'Marcia', is in 2/4 time and features a lively, rhythmic melody in the right hand and a supporting bass line in the left hand. The second part, labeled 'VAMP', is a shorter, more melodic section that serves as a bridge to the main song.

Far - mer Jas - per packed his things up had to ans - wer to his coun - try's call,
And when all the folks saw Jas - per march - ing down the street in Kahi - ki suit,

a tempo

Went down to the pub - lic square and Said "good - bye" to one and all,
Girls were ask - in' for his pict - ure, Said "gosh darn don't he look cute,"

Kissed his Ma and Pa good - bye be - fore he went a - way, But Soon the leave - in' time came near and tears it sure did bring, But when he saw his gal in tears these words I heard him say, when the train pulled out the sta - tion they all heard him sing,

CHORUS. Strict tempo.

Save all your lov - in' till I come back home and Grin, Grin, Grin,

Keep on a smil - ing tho' it hurts in - side But that's the way to win,

Good times soon will come a - gain Just let the sun shine in and (all to-gether)

save all your lov - in' till I come back home and Grin, Grin, Grin. Grin, Grin, 2.

PATTER CHORUS FOR GRIN

HAROLD DIXON

Voice

Save the flour and su-gar, try and save the fuel, nev-er get ex-ci-ted,
Cut the meat on Tues-day, Wednesday no white bread, Sat-ur-day is pork-less, Buy a lot of Thirft stamps, make the things go-far, keep right on a sav-in'

a tempo

Keep a lit-tle cool, eat a lit-tle corn bread eat a lit-tle rice and Mis-ter Hoo-ver said, send a lot of smok-ing knit a sweat-er too, and Bound to win the war, say a lit-tle pray-er help the cause a-long and

1 2 3
don't waste an-y-thing but air and think about that twice all for me and you join right in the song, and keep the boys from catching cold it's ev-ry bod-y sit-ting here just

Save all your lov-in' till I come back home and Grin, Grin, Grin.
