

As Sung by Louise Davidson

THE BUZZ SONG

By HERBERT REED

Price, 30 cents net
(No Discount)

HAROLD FLAMMER
INCORPORATED

PUBLISHER

NEW YORK CITY
56 WEST 45th ST.

The Buzz Song

Herbert Reed

Piano

Voice

Hap - py lit - tle dar - ky, all the live - long day,
If you ev - er wan - der to this lit - tle town,

Till ready

Play - ing his har - mon - i - ca to pass the time a - way.
You will nev - er for - get the thing that brought it such re - nown.

Till one day the neigh - bors came and took his toy from him,
Ev - ry - one's a - step - ping to that buzz - ing mel - o - dy,

Say - ing, "Now we've had e - nough of all this noise and din." He There's a man a buzz - in to his wife and fam - i - ly. You spoke up loud be - fore the crowd And said: "Jes lis - ten ter me;

see a boy a - buzz - ing to the one he loves so dear, And

Here's one thing you'll nev - er take a - way from me?"
look at all the la - dies buzz - ing in each oth - er's ear.

REFRAIN

*) Just hear him buzz - ing this plaint - ive

*) Make buzzing sound with mouth or comb; if preferable, whistle these passages.

tune.

Oh, lis - ten:

And when the

peo-ple all gath - er'd round this lit - tle coon,

He'd have them buzz-ing the same — old tune.

tune.