moan till the tone sort of seems, _____ Like Ru-fus Jack-son of New Or - born with a horn in his hand _____ And he could toot it to beat the leans _____ For Ru - fus had sev-'ral sad Sax-o - phones _____ That bus-ted band _____ He could-n't get a - ny set kind of key _____ But, Oh, that in thru' your skin to the bones _____ I don't care whose Pi - a - no, weird sort of bleared rhap-so - dy _____ You'll for - get all your troub-les, down in Lou'-si - a - na, That you try _____ you'll pass it by. _____

you'll be full of bub-bles, Like cham-pagne _____ it's just the same. _____

CHORUS

When you hear Jack-son moan _____ U-pon his Sax-o - phone _____ There's something in the tone _____ That makes you feel at home, _____ A thou-sand

Vi - o - lins, _____ be-neath a thou-sand chins, _____ None of them smacks a tone, like he at - tacks a tone - On that Sax - o - phone! You'll start mean - de - ring _____ A Goose and Gan - der Swing, _____ You'll swear no gran - der thing, _____ was e - ver known! _____ When you are down in the mouth _____ Oh, there's a town in the South, _____ Where you'll hear Jack - son moan, _____ — his Sax - o - phone. _____ When you hear phone. _____
