Moderato

The piano introduction consists of three systems of music. The first system is a single treble clef staff with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature. The second and third systems are grand staff notation, with a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff. The music features a rhythmic pattern of eighth and sixteenth notes, with a dynamic marking of f (forte) in the second system. The key signature changes to two sharps (F# and C#) in the second system. The introduction concludes with a final chord in the treble clef staff.

The first system of the vocal and piano accompaniment. The vocal line is in a treble clef staff with a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#). The lyrics are: "Sor-rows were nev-er meant to be, And still they / For ev-'ry-one there's joy and bliss, But then you". The piano accompaniment is in grand staff notation. The dynamic marking is mf (mezzo-forte). The piano part features a steady accompaniment of eighth notes in the bass clef and chords in the treble clef.

The second system of the vocal and piano accompaniment. The vocal line continues with the lyrics: "come to you and me, But like the skies of grey. / must re-mem-ber this, We get an e-qual share." The piano accompaniment continues in grand staff notation, maintaining the mf dynamic. The piano part features a steady accompaniment of eighth notes in the bass clef and chords in the treble clef.
