

For My Baby

Words by IRVING KAHAL
and FRANCIS WHEELER

Music by TED SNYDER

WITH DUKE
ARR.

As featured by

RUTH ETTING

"The Recording Sweetheart"

For My Baby

3

Words by IRVING KAHAL and FRANCIS WHEELER

Tune-a-Uke
A D F# B
arr. by Harry Tiedeman

Music by TED SNYDER

Moderato

Piano

f

Till ready p

Voice

It's ver-y plain to see—

That there's a change in me—

I mean a change from wrong to right.

I know that my i-deas—

were wrong for man-y years,—

My ba-by changed them ov - er night.

Chorus

I nev - er watched that clock of mine — To see if it was eight or be so ner - vous that — My Bud-dys called me "fraid-y

p-f nine — But now I'm al-ways sure to be on time- for my ba - cat" — But now I'd ev - en knock a cham-pion flat- for my ba - by. — I used to be so dog-gone blue — I used to be so crank-y

by. — I nev - er cared how I was dressed — I nev - er had my trous-ers too — But now I keep on smil - ing all day thru- for my ba - pressed — But now I ev - en wear a fan - cy vest- for my ba - by. by. I nev-er cared for a June night,

My ba-by changed my po-si-tion,

Now I can't wait till it's moon-light. — And tho' the My ba-by gave me am-bi-tion. — You ought to bank-roll's kind-a low. — I want the whole wide world to know — I made the hear that quar-tette moan — Be-cause they lost their bar-i-tone — I'll tell the pay-ments on a bung-a-low for my ba-by! — I used to by! — world I left them all a-lone for my ba-by!