

Savannah River Blues

By
Edw. L. Simmons
and
Golden DeLegge

Published by
Edw. L. Simmons
1210 Ninth Street
Augusta, -- Georgia

Savannah River Blues

Lyrics and Music by
EDW. L. SIMMONS
& GOLDEN DE LEGGE

Tempo Di Blues

The music continues with a treble clef, B-flat major, common time. The dynamic is 'p' (pianissimo) for the first measure. The lyrics 'Till Ready' are written above the staff. The lyrics 'Down in dear Au-gus-ta is the place to go, Hap-py and con-tent-ed as the days are long,' are written below the staff.

The music continues with a treble clef, B-flat major, common time. The lyrics 'Where Sa-van-nah riv-er floods its banks no more, Mil-lion dol-lar le-vee built a- It's joy to my soul I can sing this cherry song Yel-low mud-dy wat-er float-ing' are written below the staff.

The music continues with a treble clef, B-flat major, common time. The lyrics 'long the rub-bish stream, The great-est plan for safe-ty you have ev-er seen and trees, Did -nt put Sa - van-nah riv - er blæss on m.' are written below the staff.

CHORUS

Yel - low mud - dy wat - er comes a swerv - er - ing down,

p-f

Folks are all con - tent - ed do - ing business in town,

Yel - low mud - dy wat - er head - ing to the sea,

Did - n't put Sa - van-nah riv - er blues on me. blues on me.