

THERE'LL COME A DAY

COMPOSED BY
CARLYLE STEVENSON AND HARRY BAISDEN

AS FEATURED BY

GARBER-DAVIS

CELEBRATED NOVELTY SOCIETY ORCHESTRA

PUBLISHED BY

BAISDEN-STEVENSON PUB. CO. 20 MUTUAL LIFE BLDG. JACKSONVILLE FLA.

There'll Come A Day

CARLYLE STEVENSON

HARRY BAISDEN.

Moderato

VAMP

Tell me dear why did you leave me, Sure-ly now you knew 't would grieve me, Real-ly how can Real-ly dear you had no rea-son, All I did was on-ly teas-in', How can you dear

CHORUS

you for-get, Some-day dear-ie you'll re-gret And there'll come a day You'll be sor-ry treat me so, Some-day sure-ly you will know you went a-way And left me long-ing to play With-out a sweet-ie to call my own

Copyright MCMXX by Baisden and Stevenson.

International Copyright Secured.

All Mechanical Rights Reserved.

You left me all a-lone In my dreams your fair face beams I see you coming to me—

You'll be sor-ry then you'll wor-ry Just you wait and see my dear-ie Angels of love Will soon descend from a-bove And bring a message of love Sweet-heart from you I hope they do You'll miss my hugging and my kissing too You'll miss my loving and you'll feel so blue Yes there'll come a day there'll come a day. day.