

I'M JUST A HAPPY-GO-LUCKY GUY

By
LOU IRWIN

Published by
The Dudley Publishing Co.
228 TREMONT ST. BOSTON, MASS

I'm Just A Happy-Go-Lucky Guy

Words and Music by
K. LOUIS IRWIN

Moderato

PIANO

Slowly

Day by day, up - on my way, a - long thro' life I
I am sin - gle and don't min - gle in "So - ci - e - roam, _____ I hang my hat where I hap-pen to be at and I tee," _____ An old T. D. and a shad - y ap - ple tree are just call my - self at home; _____ For I'm just a gent on pleas - ure bent, Nev - er lux - u - ry to me; _____ For I must de - clare I could not bear Half the yet con - tent till my coin's all spent; Ev - er hap - py, nev - er men - tal care of a mil - lion - aire; There's no know - ing where we're snap - py, — As I wan - der dai - ly yon - der thro' this world a - lone. — go - ing, — Still here's bet - ting I'm not fret - ting what the end will be. —

CHORUS Slowly

I'm just a hap - py - go - luck - y guy, — Not a care in all the world have

I; — Troub - le nev - er troubles me, For I don't let it don't you see, — So you can bet I'm a live guy yet, - For that's why that I get by; — Some folks are read-y — to sigh and cry at each lit - tle thing that goes a - wry; —

It would crack their face a mile, If they should ev - er crack a smile, — So, don't you see I'm glad to be just a hap - py - go - luck - y guy. —