Moderato

Down in Ba - nan - a land, I heard a jun - gle band
They have a rhyth - mic swing To ev - 'ry - thing they sing,

play ing;
O boy! I watched the jun - gle beaux, Dressed in their jun - gle clothes, sway - ing.
And how those jun - gle vamps Do shake their jun - gle champs, O joy!

Danc - ing is their chief de - light, what a won - der - ful place,
They have "it" and "those" and "these," They've got noth - ing else "but,"

How they sing and dance all night, they're the hap-pi-est race; If you ev-er heard the Jig-a-
They can trem-ble like the trees Ev-en grand-mothers strut; But the rhythmic tune that sticks to loo, _____ You'd go wild and start to dance it too. _____

you, _____ Is the tan-ta-liz-ing Jig-a-loo. _____

REFRAIN

Here's the dance the lov-ers do, Ev-'ry night in the Car-i-boo, It's the

Jig, Jig, Jig-a-loo, It's the Jig, Jig, Jig-a-loo. Ev-'ry ev-'ning in the year, Here's the tune that you al-ways hear, It's the Jig, Jig, Jig - a - loo, — It's the Jig, Jig, Jig - a - loo. It has a rhyth-m they can't do with - out, It lin - gers with 'em un - til all the lights go out;

Lov-ers, when they wed in June, Sing this tune on their hon-ey-moon, It's the Jig, Jig, Jig - a - loo, — It's the Jig, Jig, Jig - a - loo. Jig, Jig, Jig - a - loo. — sffz
