

THINGS AIN'T THE SAME, BABE: I'M COMING HOME.

Words by
WILL TOBIAS

Music by
WILL HAMER

5

Produced by HOWLEY, HAVILAND & DRESSER
1260-1266 BROADWAY
NEW YORK -
GRAND OPERA HOUSE BLOCK CHICAGO - THEATRE ROYAL LONDON

J. F. W.

Things Ain't The Same, Babe, I'm Coming Home.

Words by WILL TOBIAS.

Music by WILL HAMER.

Moderato.

A bur - ly coon and his
'Twas on a Wednes-day this

The first system of the song features a vocal melody in the right hand and piano accompaniment in the left hand. The piano part includes dynamic markings of mp (mezzo-piano).

la - dy love one dark and storm - y night Could not a - gree, then he and she note ar-rived and found his babe a - lone, 'Twas Thurs - day noon this sor - ry coon ex-

The second system continues the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The piano part includes dynamic markings of mp (mezzo-piano).

had a terri - ble fight. This coon got sore and slammed the door, said pect - ed news from home. He loafed a - round the town each day a - he'd re - turn no more, Had packed his grip to take a trip, for their wait - ing anx - ious - ly. He said, "I'm sure my la - dy love will dream of love was o'er. Most ev - 'ry day this coon would say he send some coin to me." On Thurs - day noon the let - ter came, and nev - er would re - turn. He'd be con - tent wher - e'er he went, as it near broke his heart, "Not a sin - gle sou will I give you; 'tis he had coin to burn. But he soon got broke, all his clothes in soak, and best we stay a - part. You must think I'm cra - zy, man, then was on the dead; To his babe he wrote a lit - tle note, and this is what he said, to for - give so soon; Once you had things all your way, now there's noth - ing do - ing, coon."

CHORUS.

" Things ain't the same, babe,..... since I went a - way :..... If I re -
 " Things ain't the same, babe,..... since you went a - way :..... If you re - turn, babe,..... please let me stay..... I'm sor - ry I went, babe... turn, man,..... I can - not stay..... 'Tis bad you left, coon,...

.... from you to roam :..... I'm on my way, babe,..... from me to roam :..... If you're on your way, babe,.....

1. I'm com - ing home."..... " Things ain't the home.".....
 I'm leav - ing home."..... " Things ain't the home.".....

2.