

AN INVITATION

TO THE SACRAMENTO VALLEY

SONG AND CHORUS

PUBLISHED AND DISTRIBUTED BY THE SACRAMENTO VALLEY EXPOSITIONS COMMISSION

MUSIC BY VIRGIL MOORE

WORDS BY
S. GLEN ANDRUS

Copyright Presented to the Chamber of Commerce of Sacramento, Inc.
by the Associated Bankers of the Capital City

AN INVITATION

Music by VIRGIL MOORE
Words by S. GLEN ANDRUS

Tempo di marcia

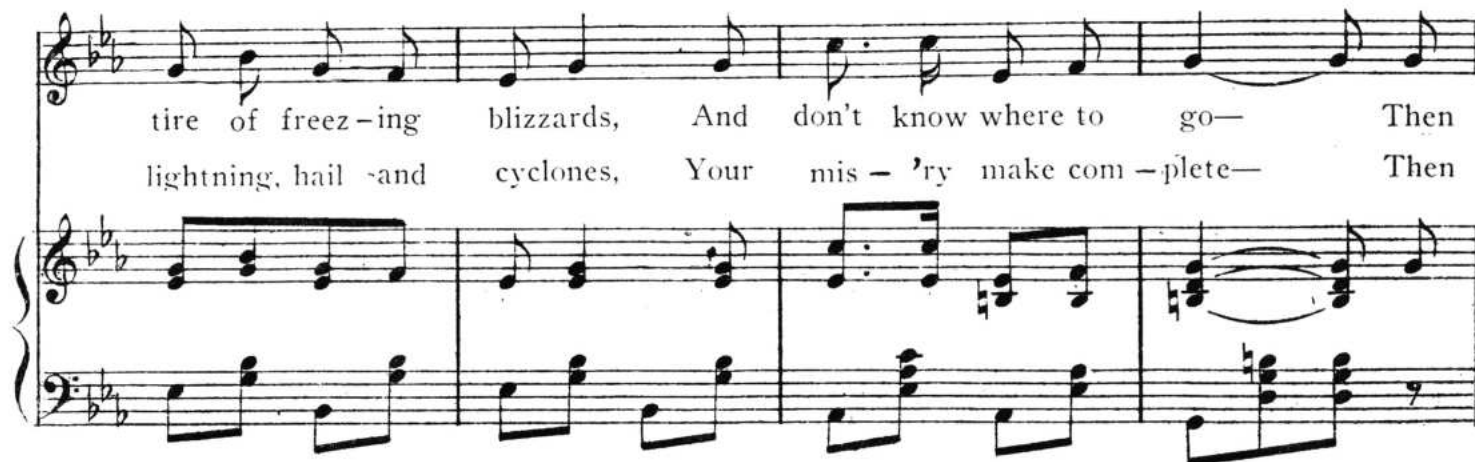

When the win-ter winds are howl-ing, And cold and ice a - bound; — When the When you're swelt'ring in the summer, And dying with fierce heat; — When the mer cur - y is fall-ing, And the snow is on the ground; When you storm clouds are up — on you And it rains in blind-ing sheet; When tire of freez-ing blizzards, And don't know where to go— Then lightning, hail -and cyclones, Your mis - 'ry make com - plete— Then come to us in Sun - ny Cal - i - for - - - nia. Where there's fine and bal - my come to us in Sun - ny Cal - i - for - - - nia. There's an i - deal, fer - tile weath - er, Made on a whole - sale plan; Ripe fruits late in De - val - ley, 'Tween the mountains and the sea, Where the cool - ing breezes ce - mber, E - nough for ev'ry man; Luscious o - rang - es and olives grow, And blowing, Make you always wish to be. So we ask you to re - mem - ber That a gold is in the land— In the counties of the Sac - ra - men - to Val - - ley.

 home is most complete— Mid the blessings of the Sac - ra - men - to Val - - ley.

ff ped.

CHORUS

We send this in - vi - ta - tion to come To the Val - ley of the West. ——— Where peace, plen - ty, con - tent-ment and health Make every - one re - joice ——— Where fruits and flowers and sunshine, ——— In a clime that is the best. ——— Will give you much of wealth and joy— In the Sac - ra - men - to Val - - ley. ———

ff p f dim ff f