Moderato

The

gay Dons of old came seek-ing bright gold And brought their dreams of fame In gay Dons of old found lit-tle gold And gone is now their fame In Cal - i - for - nia lived and loved As once they did in Spain In gar - dens where they lived and loved Our cit - ies now are made But gar-dens walled their love they told With man-y a ser-e-nade And on their ha - ci - en - das love is told by star - lit walls And still a ser-e-nade Will weave a - gain Ro-mance and broad Their game of life was played In a gar-den where the dreams Of Span-ish Dons and maids

CHORUS
 star-light calls Fra-grant ro-ses bloom a-long the walls A sen-or-i-ta's heart is wait-ing For your com-ing and your ser-e-nade In a court-yard where the foun-tains play She'll de-mure-ly steal your heart a-way This brown eyed maid of Cal-i-for-nia's old-en Span-ish days. In a gar-den where the days.
