When I hear dem talk a-bout tough guys— Chee it makes me as When fel-lers take goils for a joy ride, Dey go out in an sore as a pup— If you tink you can fight, you should come down some night, To de up-to date hoise— Ev'-ry - one on de block is as hard as a rock, Ev-en dis-strict where I was dragged up— De goils dere is woise den de fel-lers, ba-bies shoot craps with dere noise (nurse) In-stead of de reg-u-lar lip rouge,

De goils all use dy - na-mite sticks — When a cou - ple gets goil friend in - stead of a kiss He gives her a sock in de eye — hitched we don't trow rice and shoes Fer luck we just crown 'em wid bricks.

I come from DOWN BY THE GAS HOUSE In the wer-ry woist part of the town —

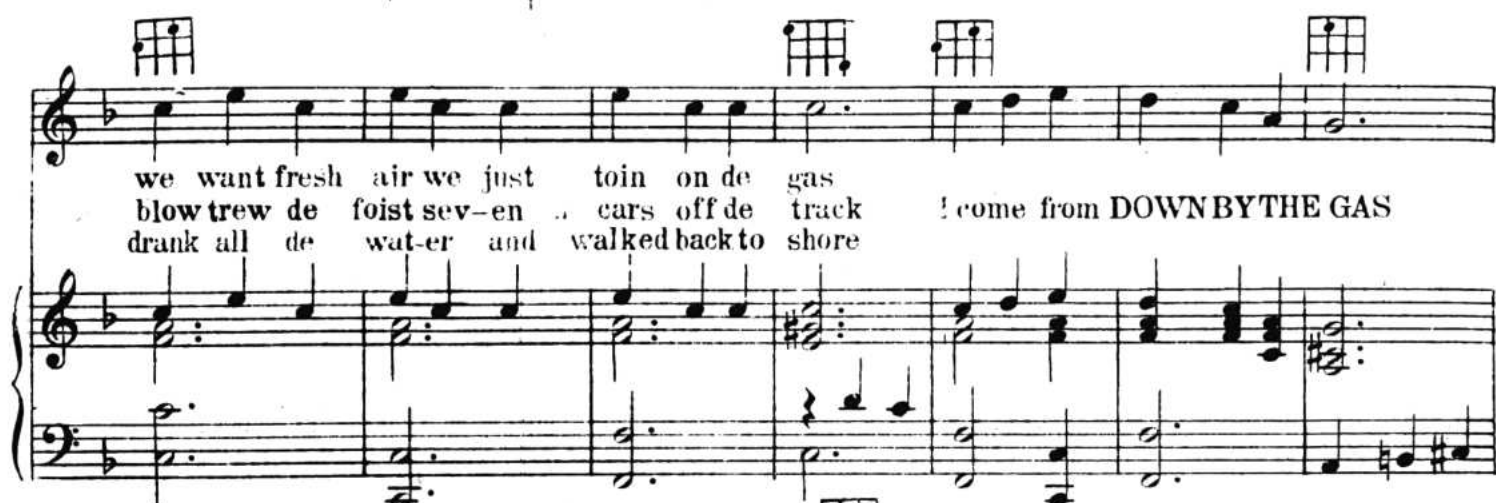

De kidss smoke ci-gars when dere sev-en weeks old Dey cry for car-bol-ic when — De goils go to smok-ers dere's no kick in shows Dey wear pois-on iv-y in - We're so chum-my dat we sleep twelve in a room De goils dere use eth-er in - dey get a cold De gang dat I go wid all eat at de Greeks 'Cause his meat is de -stead of a rose When were eat-in' oys-ter-s we swal-low de shells Just to make sure de -stead of poi - fume Last week I was swimmin' and I got a cramp Ev - 'ry - one was a - tough-est we've found _____ Some folks tink de sea-shore has got lots of class When oys - ters stay down _____ Last week an ex-pres train bumped in - to me back De -fraid dat I'd drown _____ When I start-ed sink-in' it got me so sore I we want fresh air we just toin on de gas blow trew de foist sev-en cars off de track ! come from DOWN BY THE GAS drank all de wat-er and walked back to shore
