seem to wor - ry you, — Gee! but you feel blue, — But re - member do — That in your sky you'll find, — You think fate's un - kind, — But just bear in mind — That one lit - tle sun - beam, Two lit - tle sun - beams chase them from the sky. So one lit - tle rain - bow, Two lit - tle rain - bows make the gray sky blue. So if it rains or if it shines, Here's the thing you ought to try:- if it rains or if it shines, Here's the on - ly thing to do:-

CHORUS

Just keep on Hum-hum-hum-hum-hum-hum-hum-ming all the while, — And soon there'll come - come - come - come - come - come - come a lit - tle smile, — And you'll be You'll see a - hap - hap - hap - hap - hap - hap - hap - py all the day, — You'll see your new-bird, new-bird, new-bird sit - ing in a tree — 'Twill be a troub-troub-troub-troub - troub-troub-troub-les run a - way. So when you blue - bird, blue - bird, blue - bird sing-ing mer-ri - ly So when you wake-wake-wake-wake - wake-wake-wake up in the morn - ing. Don't jump-up, jump-up, jump-up, jump up in the morn - ing. And lay in bed and dread the skies of gray, Be-cause they can't al-ways be find it is a drear-y, wea-ry day And e - ven tho the rain may blue, — So when things go wrong with you Just Hum - Hum - Hum - fall — It won't drop on you at all If you Hum - Hum - Hum - Hum your troub-les a - way. Just keep on way.

Hum your troub-les a - way. way.
