Your Mammy's Goin' To Kiss Those Tears Away

Lyric by
WILL H. SMITH

Music by NAT OSBORNE

Moderato

Piano

Till Ready

An old log cab-in down near the Dix-ie line, A Mam-my so old and gray—
Most ev-'ry ev-'ning when all the work is done, And time for slum-ber is near.

Watch-ing ov-er her lit-tle "picks" so care-ful through the live-long Mam-my then takes each kin-ky head and gent-ly wipes a-way each day; When-ev-er trou-ble came a-round Then you'd al-ways hear her say:

tear She tucks them in so snug and warm As she whis-pers in each ear.

Refrain

Your Mam-my's goin' to kiss those tears a-way Yes, Those tears a-way, You know you're Mam-my's an-gel child, — And when you cry it sets me wild, — I'm goin' to take you in my lo - vin' arms — and hug you up so tight, — Don't feel so bad, dear, You make me sad, dear, kiss your Mam-my "Good - night;" Be-cause your Mam-my's goin' to kiss those tears yes Those tears a - way, — Now lis - ten what she's got to say — Then hon-ey-bunch can go out-side and play —

Ee - nie, mee - nie mi - nie moe — Catch a lit - tle pick - a - nin - ny by the toe, 'Cause your Mam-my's goin' to kiss those tears a - way. Your Mam-my's way. —
