

I'D LIKE TO KNOW YOUR ADDRESS & YOUR NAME

Words by ARTHUR GILLESPIE

Music by TERRY SHERMAN

STARMER

"I'd like to know your address and your name."

Words by ARTHUR GILLESPIE.

Music by TERRY SHERMAN.

Moderato.

Voice.

"Good morn - ing lit - tle girl - ie," said a
"Now don't be so pro - vok - ing," said the

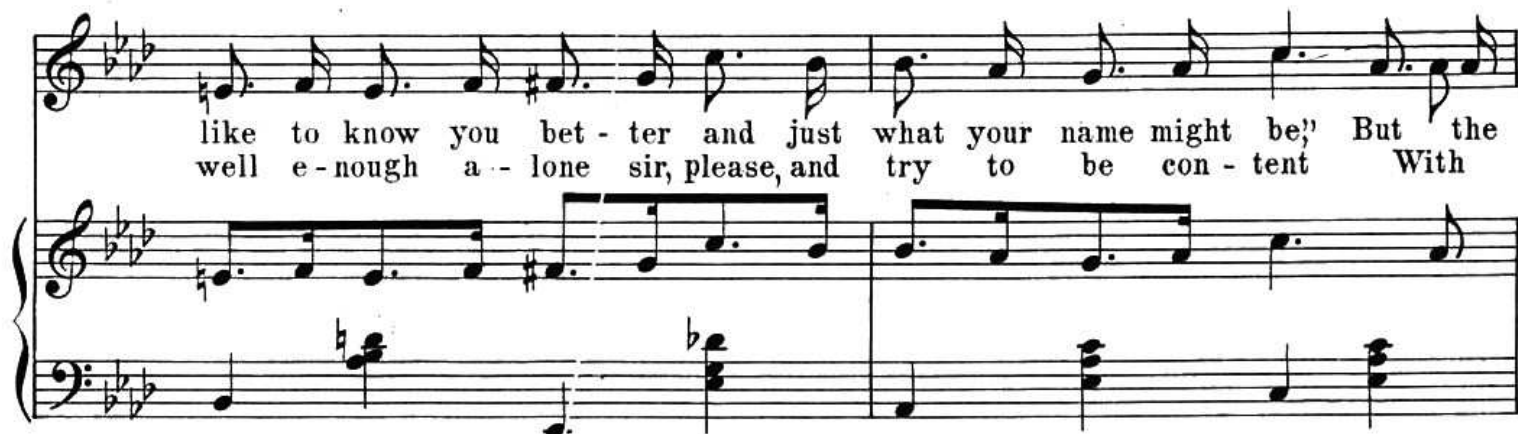

Vamp.

youth pray par-don me, But I've watched you for a long, long while, — I'd maid so in - no-cent With a naugh - ty twink-le in her eye — Let like to know you bet - ter and just what your name might be," But the well e-nough a - lone sir, please, and try to be con - tent With maid - en on - ly smiled a smil - ey smile. _____ Said just a glance from me when pass - ing by. _____ To he, "You take de - light in keep - ing me up in the air," Said the tell you who I am and where I live would nev - er do For I'd maid "I think I know your game!" Said he "I'm quite dis-cour-aged, but the on - ly have my-self to blame— Be-sides" said she I nev - er have been ques-tion's on - ly fair Won't you let me have your ad-dress and your name._

in - tro-duced to you So I can't give you my ad-dress or my name._

CHORUS.

I'd like to know your ad-dress, I'd like to know your name,— You try to keep me guess-ing But I'll get you just the same,— A pret - ty girl like you, dear, And sin - gle what a shame!— I'd like to know your ad-dress, I'd like to know your name.— I'd name.—