

FLAG THAT TRAIN!

(TO ALABAMA)

by
EDDIE RICHMOND
IRVING ROTHSCHILD
& LINDSAY McPHAIL

A.D. BROWN
ART

MADE IN U. S. A.

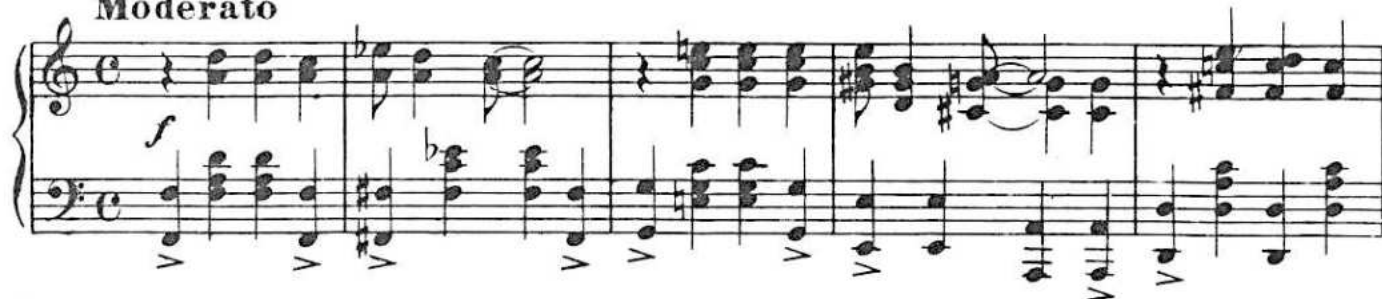

Quigley and Benson Inc.
Garrick Building
CHICAGO ILLINOIS

Flag That Train

(To Alabam)

EDDIE LINDSAY IRVING
By RICHMOND-McPHAIL-ROTHSCHILD

Moderato

VAMP

My sweet-ie wrote a line — first she wrote for a long long time —
 Since sweet-ie sent for me — there's a thought com-in' back to me —

Said she wait-ed me, need-ed sym-pa-thy so I'm on my way come on and Now we'll set - tle down, in a lit - tle town just my pal and me come on and

§ CHORUS

Flag that train I'm on my way a - gain back to that p-f

Home of mine, be - low the line in Di - xie The folks are wait-ing there I'll fill that va-cant chair And with sweet

Ad - e - line gal of mine I'll be Come on and flag that train I'm bound for home a - gain For when I'm roam-in' I'm as help-less as a lamb 1 Oh! law-dy lis-ten here

2 Oh! train-man don't you fail

don't miss that en - gin - eer nail So flag that train to Al - a -
'cause I'm a cof - fin nail

1 bam'! Come on and bam'! 2 to Patter 3 last ending bam'!

PATTER

"F" is for the Flag-man who will flag my train "L" if for the Lo-vin' I will get a - gain "A" is for my Al - a - bam' to where I'll ride

"G" is for the Girl who's gon-na be my bride "M" is for my Moth-er who will meet me there "A" is for the sweet A - ro - ma in the air

"Ns" the end of Flagman and that's right It's goin' to be his end if he aint there to-night To