

HAIL, LINDBERGH!

Chief of the Air

WORDS BY

Margaret G. Banfield

MUSIC BY

Bauer Bros.

Published by MARGARET G. BANFIELD
DUBUQUE, IOWA.

Hail, Lindbergh! Chief of the Air

Words by
MARGARET G. BANFIELD

MARCH SONG
Tune Ukulele

Music by BAUER BROS.

B $\flat$ E $\flat$ G C

ff

Brave Chief of the Through sleet and through For cour - age na - Son of the land

mf

Air, we hail you, Our gal - lant A - mer - i - can boy, fog you trav - 'led, O'er a lone - ly treach - er - ous sea, tions ac - claim you, And crown you a He - ro of Fame, of Stars and Stripes, A - mer - i - can Chief of the Air,

You have earned and won the ti - tle, And now it is Fate in the Hands of your Mak - er, You knew not what Down through a - ges of his - to - ry, For - ev - er hon - Kind hearts will al - ways re - mem - ber, How you first flew your's with joy. You have spanned the great At - lan - tic, that would be. A - lone through the night you wan - dered, or your name, For you've crossed a night - y o - cean, ov - er there. With the Spir - it of St. Lou - is,

From Roosevelt Field to Pa - ree, Lind - bergh, pride of You and your true plane just "WE", And cross'd the broad From the new world to Pa - ree, Lin - dy, pride of A great white bird of the air, You've touched the heart your Coun - try, An ace o'er land and o'er sea.

At - lan - tic, From New York to gay Pa - ree.
your Moth - er, An ace o'er land and o'er sea.
of ev'-ry-one, Ov - er here and ov - er there.

CHORUS

Hail to the flag Old Glo-ry, Hail to her Chief of the Air,

First to make a non-stop flight, From the new world to ov - er there, Pride of Moth - er and coun - try, Lind - bergh, son of the free, You've con - quered the great At - lan - tic,

From the U. S. A. to Pa - ree. - ree.