Moderato.

The musical score is written for piano and voice. It begins with a piano introduction in G major, 2/4 time, marked 'Moderato'. The piano part features a series of chords and triplets. The vocal melody enters in the second system with the lyrics: 'When the clouds be-gan to gath-er and the thun-der it did roar Barn-ey Mc'. The piano accompaniment continues with chords and triplets. The third system continues the vocal melody: 'If it start-ed rain-in' pitch forks ans-tered Barn-ey with a grin Out in the'. The piano part provides harmonic support with chords and triplets. The fourth system introduces a new vocal line: 'Shane came down the lane And it was just as he was pass-ing By the'. The piano accompaniment continues with chords and triplets. The fifth system continues the vocal melody: 'rain sure I'd re main Tak-in' a fly at mat-ri-mo-ny I'm not'. The piano part provides harmonic support with chords and triplets. The sixth system continues the vocal melody: 'wid-ow No-lan's door phat do ye think it be-gan to pour She was'. The piano accompaniment continues with chords and triplets. The seventh system concludes the vocal melody: 'start-in' to be-gin Blarn-ey a-way but I'll not go in Ar-rah'. The piano part provides harmonic support with chords and triplets.
