

Shake It And Break It

Words by
H. QUALLI CLARK

Music by
SIGNOR FRISCOE LOU
CHIRI

Piano

Voice

Vamp

There's a new fash-ioned dance that's the Mar-y Price shook it nice af-ter rage round this town, Girls that dance this new dance wear a new fash-ioned gown shed danced it twice with Jim Brice, danced it thrice and that shake did suf-fice

This gown cute and nif-ty made of taf-fe-ta fine say it's some He was her lan-lord, a grouch who saved ev'-ry cent and now her creme de la creme and it is strict - ly in line. Those who house it costs noth - ing and he pays her the rent. Old man dance this new dance suf - fi - cate with de - light, First you Stout had the gut he could scarce get a - bout "Snake it jazz to the left then you jazz to the right What a queer sen-sa-tion Lor - dy Kate knew the route took him out made him stout When she start-ed shak-ing he comgrips you clear through and then you cling to ma - ma like glue oh! how they mencened to step light and now he gives a free dance each night oh! how they glide sat - is - fied that they nev - er died be - fore they had a chance to do this glide sat - is - fied that they nev - er died be - fore they had a chance to do this

Non de-scrip-tive dance and ev - 'ry one glid - ing by heaves a sigh oh! my and Non de-scrip-tive dance and ev - 'ry one glid - ing by heaves a sigh oh! my while then you keep on sigh-ing till you go off in a trance. They shake pret-ty gowns while the poor old Brice he pays Miss Price the house rent in ad-vance. They shake pret-ty gowns while the

mus - ic sounds and move slow, so neat and sweet they sing as they go.
 mus - ic sounds and move slow, so neat and sweet they sing as they go.

Chorus

Shake it Break it float it round the hall —

If it cracks, don't you slack shake gowns don't stall Oh! come on shake ladies lean, fat, short and tall — Just shake it and break it hang it on the wall. — wall. —