VOICE

1. I looked in my lit-tle red book, And found I had a date
2. Feel just like I'm walk-ing on wheels, I think that I could fly, p

At half-past eight I can't be late
Look in my eye And you'll see why

Look me o - ver How do I look? Now tell me am I there Just had rub - ber Put on my heels, For I've no time to lose

Tell me on the square, Could I make an - y one care? —
Do your du - ty shoes, I'm run - ning 'way from the blues. —

CHORUS

1. I combed my hair and brushed my hat, I ev - en washed my dog and cat
2. I got my Ma and got my Pa, And put them in my mo - tor car
3. If she says "yes" then I'll say "yes" If she says "no" I'll still say "yes"

To-night's my night with ba - by, The
To-night's my night with ba - by, And To-night's my night with ba - by, If on-ions that I like so much, For weeks I have - n't dared to touch I said to my driv - er Jack, Just drive and drive and don't come back she says "do" then I'll say "do" If she says "don't" I'll still say "do"

To-night's my night with ba - by
 To-night's my night with ba - by
 To-night's my night with ba - by

I call sweet - ie "ba - by" and here's the rea - son why,
 We've seen ev - 'ry mov - ie, we've been to ev - 'ry play
 We'll move to the North Pole I know that we're not wrong

Ev - 'ry time we cud - dle, It works just like a lul - la - by I
 We must have a - muse-ment But want it in a dif - f'rent way I
 You know at the North Pole The nights up there are six months long I hid the par - son in the hall So he'll be there if I should call fixed the lights at half-past ten, They'll all blow out Oh boy, and then guess she's nice I hope I'm right But if I'm wrong I'll know to - night
