

IVE BEEN LOOKING ALL AROUND FOR YOU

WORDS & MUSIC BY
J ROSS MILLER

NEW YORK

BELL-MILLER  MUSIC PUB. CO

CHICAGO

I'VE BEEN LOOKING ALL AROUND FOR YOU

Words & Music by J ROSS MILLER.

Mod^{to}

f

VAMP

p

In silv'ry moon-light, bright, There strolled a I'm glad I found you, dear, Now if you'll

p

p

youth one night, And al-so strolled a maid - en sweet; Now, he was cud - dle near, I'll tell the sto-ry old to you; You are the feel-ing blue, And she was lone-ly, too, By hand of fate, they chanced to on - ly one; Who to my heart has come, And made it sing of love so

Copyright 1916 by Bell-Miller Music Pub. Co. New York & Chicago

All Rights Reserved

International Copyright Secured

meet. How do you do! my dear, Why this is ve - ry queer, You're just the true. In - to my lone - li - ness, At last you've come to bless, And I'm as one I longed to see; Since love a - woke my heart, Of me, you've hap - py as can be; Be - lieve me, dear - est, when I say to been a part, I've looked for you o'er land and sea.

you a - gain, I've looked for you o'er land and sea.

CHORUS

I've been looking all a-round for you, dear, I've looked this wide world o'er for

p-f

you; But dear, I could-n't find, The one I had in mind, 'Till I looked in - to your eyes of blue. In Sun - ny Spain they danced in vain, dear, No song of It - a - ly would do, Nor in Lon-don or Pa-ree, Your sweet face could I see; I've been look-ing all a round for you. I've been you.